New progress and attainment measures

The government no longer reports key stages 1 and 2 attainment using levels. Key stage 2 national curriculum test outcomes are instead reported as scaled scores, where 100 represents the expected standard and, for 2017, 110 represents the high standard. At key stage 2, teacher assessment is reported for writing and science. At key stage 1, teacher assessment is reported for reading, writing, mathematics and science. The government no longer defines expected progress. Key stage 1 to key stage 2 progress is calculated differently from previously and the national average is zero. Provisional 2016 data for each subject shows that fewer than 5% of schools have progress scores above 5 and fewer than 5% of schools have progress scores below -5. Performance on the new measures is not comparable with pre-2016 performance.
