

CURRICULUM OVERVIEW: English KS5

Exam board: AQA English Literature

Exam board: AQA English Literature
	Year 12	Year 13
Autumn term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Atonement by Ian McEwan Pre 19th Century Poetry AQA anthology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams
Spring term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The God of Small Things by Arundhati Roy Feminine Gospels by Carol Anne Duffy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Othello by William Shakespeare
Summer term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Frankenstein by Mary Shelley compared to a one other text Unseen poetry 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Revision
Assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Internally assessed half term modules End of Year AQA Literature mock exam (internally assessed). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Internally assessed half term modules Christmas AQA Literature mock and other mock exams throughout the year (see assessment calendar for more information) Coursework NEA unit (worth 20% of course). End of year external examinations in May/June (worth 80% of course).